Abstracts of Sharon Deeds in Pennsylvania 1740 to 1800

Rather than include lengthy transcripts of the many deeds involving Sharons in Pennsylvania, I am including Abstracts of these deeds in Chronological Order. These deeds state where the person was living and where the property was located. The deeds also often mention abutting property owners. Nearby owners and witnesses give us a better 'fix' on which members of the Sharon family was involved in the transaction. As I mentioned at the beginning, these land transactions help us to sort out the various Jameses and Williams and Hughs.

DECEMBER 22, 1740. William Sherron receives a land warrant in Philadelphia for lands in East Pennsborough Township, Cumberland County. This was the land that he and Margaret lived on and willed to their son, Hugh in 1750.

SHARON FAMILY WILLS & OTHER DOCUMENTS

The following section contains Wills, Grants, Abstracts of deeds and other documents that offer important records of the Sharon Family History.

In the early days, these recorded documents were in many cases the only sources of information. Wills gave information on who the person's spouse was and gave very valuable information on the children. Deeds give us information on where people were living at a certain time frame.

In the case of the Sharons, it helps to separate out the many different James, William and Hugh Sharons. Land warrants and patents are of less importance as in many cases the person lived on the land for many years before applying for such documents, but again they help place the various people.

The Will of William Sharron 1799

The following will is found in the Jefferson County, Ohio Court House Records in Will Book No. 1, Page 5. The Book has become unbound and the pages are loose and falling apart. The Jefferson County Historical Society provided a Xerox copy. As the spine portion is torn, I have tried to either guess at words or used dots to indicate gaps.

This William Sharon was the son of James and Elizabeth Sharron. He is not the William, son of James that is my direct lineage. This particular William Sharron is not in my direct line, but his will is interesting and one of the older documents we have on the Sharon Family. For this reason, it is included.

The will was probated April 4, 1799, the actual date of signing is partially torn away.
