THE HEADLEE FAMILY

I have had a great deal of trouble tracking down this family. Many in this line changed their name to Headley and said they never heard of Headlee. In 1990, I finally came across an Alvah Headlee who had written a book, a rather complete book, on the family. Regretfully I came across his work about six months after his death. His son still had copies of the book and I was able to obtain a copy of this private printing.

The book was complete, except on my particular line, but isn't that always the case. I found my Jacob, but it only listed him as having a son and a daughter. But, the background was there. I found the line of Headlees that came down to the Minerva Headlee that married Dr. John Kirk Sharon in Woodsfield, Ohio. There were other Headlee/Headley families in Monroe County, Ohio. They were all related, but my grandmother Sharon's notes said Minerva's dad was Jacob so I was able to zero in on the right gang.

Or so I thought. Turns out there were two separate Jacob Headlees in Monroe County. My Jacob was in Woodsfield township, and Ephraim's son Jacob in Perry Township. Nothing is simple. At any rate, here is what I know of the Headlee family.

EARLY HEADLEYS IN ENGLAND

The Headlee/Headley family is English. Most of the branches stemmed from the family that lived at HEDLEY-ON-THE-HILL in Northumberland County in the north of England next to the border with Scotland.

This family goes back forever and the name sounds like they may be Normans who came over from the French Coast.

There are several genealogies of the English branch, but none actually linking them with the American Headley/Headlee family. They obviously are connected, but I have no common chain.

EARLY HEDLEYS IN AMERICA

In the early 1660s, three Headley men came to America. I do not know if they were brothers, but that is the assumption. JOHN HEADLEY settled in Newport, Rhode Island. LEONARD HEADLEY went from the New Haven Colony to settle the new community at Elizabethtown, New Jersey in 1665. RICHARD HEADLEY along with others in the New Haven Colony settled Eastchester, New York also in 1665. Our Headlee line comes down from Richard Headley.

I have several other lines, Marsh, Riggs, Scudder and Searing that settled in Elizabethtown, New Jersey. Actually it was the Greater Newark area that they settled. When the English bought New York from the Dutch, they wanted to settle it as an English colony as quickly as possible.

The original Puritan colonies in Plymouth and Boston had already established a strictly adherent colony in Connecticut. People from this colony based in New Haven responded by sending families to populate these new English colonies in New York and northern New Jersey. Many settled in an area called 'Connecticut Farms' so named because all the settlers were from the New Haven Colony.

I will begin our American line with Richard Headley.

RICHARD HEADLEY

Richard Headley was born in 1642 possibly in England, but more probably in either the Boston or New Haven Colony.

By the early 1660s he was living in the New Haven Colony near Fairfield, Connecticut. In 1664, he was among the group that moved to and settled the area of Eastchester, New York. At the time it covered most of what is now southern Westchester County and abutted the Dutch Colony in New York.

In 1670 he married Hannah Drake. Richard was a carpenter by trade. They had three sons, THOMAS, SAMUEL and ROBERT. Hannah died in 1688. Richard's second wife's name was Mary. They were married in about 1690, at which time they moved to the town of Mamaroneck, some six miles away on the Long Island Sound. Mary was probably Mary Drake, Hannah's sister who was unmarried in 1686 when her father's will was written.

Hannah and Mary's parents were Samuel Drake and Ann Barlow. Both were probably born in England, came to the New Haven Colony and settled in Fairfield, Connecticut. They moved to Eastchester, New York and both parents died there. Samuel in June of 1686 and Ann sometime later.

At any rate, Richard and Mary had RICHARD, JOSEPH, JOHN and ELIZABETH, all born in Mamaroneck, New York.

The last record we find was in 1709 in Mamaroneck. Richard was sixty-seven at that time and probably died soon afterwards.

The following is what I know about the seven children of Richard Headley.

THOMAS HEADLEY married and had one son, John, who married Mary Waite.

SAMUEL HEADLEY married Sarah Dickerman and had Mary, Joseph, Robert, Samuel, Sarah, Rachel, Phebe and Isaac.

ROBERT HEADLEY had Robert, Samuel, Phebe who married Thomas Gardner and Isaac who married Mary Frazee.

RICHARD HEADLEY JR. is our line and is covered in the next section.

JOSEPH HEADLEY

JOHN HEADLEY

ELIZABETH HEADLEY

RICHARD HEADLEY JR.

Richard Headley, Junior was the first child born in Mamaroneck, New York and was born out of the second marriage of Richard and Mary Headley. He was born about 1691.

Nothing is known about his wife. By 1716, he seems to have moved, like most of his brothers, to New Jersey. He settled in Hunterdon County, New Jersey.

Hunterdon was one of the Counties split out of the old East Jersey Colony. Morris County was cut out of Hunterdon County. We will see that the family next appears in Morris County, but that is only because Morris was established. The family probably always lived in the same area.

Family tradition indicates that Richard was conscripted into the British Navy, escaped from ship and took refuge in central New Jersey. He was later caught by the English and returned to sea. He was to serve seven years, but again jumped ship and returned to his family in New Jersey.

Interesting.

At any rate the family was located in New Jersey through the Revolutionary War. Richard probably died there in the 1770s.

Richard Headley Junior had at least three sons and most likely daughters as well, but I have no records on them. The children were:

Francis Headley

Francis Headley was born in Northern New Jersey in about 1731 and died in Randolph County, Virginia in 1805.

He married Huldah Cary, a daughter of John Cary. Their children were:

JOHN CARY who married Mary Hathaway.

SAMUEL CARY who married Abigail Trace.

SUSANNAH CARY

THREE OTHER DAUGHTERS.

He was in Hardiston Township of Sussex County, New Jersey in 1774 and served as a major in the Sussex Company A during the war. After the Revolution, they moved to Washington County, Pennsylvania. By 1796 they had moved to Randolph County, Virginia.

John Headlee

John Headlee, born in 1735 is our line and is covered next.

Joseph Headlee

Joseph Headlee was born February 3, 1746 and died in 1840. He married Abigail Morris and they had:

THOMAS HEADLEE

JOHN HEADLEE

JOSEPH HEADLEE who married Sarah Blair.

PHEBE HEADLEE who married John Clutter.

SAMUEL HEADLEE who married Rachel James.

ELIAS HEADLEE who married Catherine Dickson.

EUNICE HEADEE who married Benjamin Rowley.

MORRIS HEADLEE

HANNAH HEADLEE who married William Weir.

NANCY HEADLEE

AMOS HEADLEE who married Experience Lindsey and then Christine Clutter. It is said he served in the Revolution, but there is no record. After the War, he also moved to Washington County, Pennsylvania and then to Trumbull County, Ohio in 1828. He died there February 22, 1840.

JOHN HEADLEE SR.

John Headlee was born in about 1735 in Hunterdon County, New Jersey. He married Jerusha Mann in New Jersey about 1753. The Mann family was Puritan stock that moved from Boston to the New Haven Colony and then to Elizabethtown New Jersey. I assume Jerusha is part of this family. I am related to the Mann family through my Marsh line as well. Samuel Marsh married Comfort Mann in Connecticut near Milford in 1647 and they moved to New Jersey in the 1750s.

John and Jerusha lived in Morris County, New Jersey and then moved to near Princeton, probably in Somerset County, New Jersey. John joined the American Army at the beginning of the Revolution. He became ill in the winter of 1776-77 and died before ever seeing action. He may have missed the actual fighting, but all you kinfolk can join the DAR/SAR on his service.

John and Jerusha had five sons and probably a few daughters as well. After the Revolution, several of the children moved to North Carolina and to Virginia. It appears Jerusha went to Burke County, North Carolina with her son Thomas. She was listed there in the 1800 census.

The five sons of John and Jerusha Headlee were:

John Headlee Jr.

John Headlee is our line and is covered in the next section.

Ephraim Headlee

Ephraim was born in Morris County, New Jersey January 21, 1758. During the Revolution he served as a private in the Morris County Militia.

After the war ended, Ephraim married Mary Fordyce in about 1783. Mary was born near Mount Olive, New Jersey in Morris County October 19, 1763. She was a daughter of Samuel Fordyce and Elizabeth Huggins.

They remained in Morris County until 1795 when they moved to Shannon's Run in Greene County in western Pennsylvania. The Fordyce family moved there as well, Samuel became a Deacon in the Baptist Church. Ephraim built a total of three log homes and ran his cobbler business from them.

By 1804, Ephraim was joined by his brothers Joshua, John and Thomas who had all left New Jersey for Burke County, North Carolina before coming to Greene County in Pennsylvania.

All in all, Ephraim owned well over a thousand acres in Greene County and left most to his sons at his death. He remained in Greene County until his death on December 6, 1822. Mary lived another 28 years until August 8, 1850.

Ephraim and Mary had nine sons, and possibly daughters, they were:

Elizabeth lived with her son, Samuel, and then later (1860) with her son James. She was living alone in her own house, when it burned and caused her death on February

6, 1869. Their children were:

Abraham, James, Rebecca, Mary, Lydia, Phoebe, Samuel and Sarah Headlee.

SAMUEL HEADLEE was born about 1792. He married and moved to Washington County, Indiana and then Orange County, Indiana.

CHARLES HEADLEE was born in New Jersey on March 13, 1794. This was just before his family moved to Pennsylvania. He married Mary Carney in 1822. In 1857, they moved to White County, Indiana and founded the town of Headlee. Mary died February 5, 1862, and Charles died in Headlee March 3, 1877. Their children were:

He married Mary Fairchild in about 1787 after the War. Their first child was born in New Jersey and then they moved to Burke County, North Carolina in 1791. They remained there until 1823 when they moved to Maury County, Tennessee. Mary died there on January 23, 1833. In November 1836, Elisha and many of his family moved to Greene County, Missouri where he died October 8, 1845.

Their children were:

CALEB HEADLEE was born in New Jersey on November 5, 1788. He married Mary Steele in Burke County on September 6, 1810. He moved with the rest of his family to Maury County, Tennessee in 1823 and then on to Greene County, Missouri in 1836. He was Lenora, Absolem, Livonia, Caleb, Mary, William and Adolphus Andrews.

Joshua M. Headlee

Joshua was born in Morris County, New Jersey in 1764. He is shown as receiving a pay voucher for services in the Revolution in Burke County, North Carolina. As he would have only been 16 at the end of the war, it does not seem it would be for fighting, but for services rendered.

Sometime around 1797, he married in Burke County. His wife's name was Susannah, but we have no record of her last name. They remained in North Carolina until the spring of 1806 when they moved to Greene County, Pennsylvania having bought 100 acres of the Headlee Tract on Little Shannon's Run from his brother Elisha. In 1816, he bought another 80 acres from his brother Thomas.

Joshua was assessor of Whitely Township in Greene County in 1824.

Sometime about 1829 or 1830, he moved his family to Indiana and settled in Walker Township of Rush County. In 1841, he moved to Lee County, Iowa where he died at age eighty in 1844.

The children of Joshua M. and Susannah Headlee were:

ELISHA HEADLEE was born in 1798 in North Carolina. He married Nancy Ann True of Virginia in about 1817 in North Carolina. Nancy's mother was a cousin of Benedict Arnold. He moved to Rush County, Indiana in 1829 and then to Madison Township of Tipton County, Indiana in the mid 1840s. He remained there for the remainder of his life. Their children were:

James, Maria, Elijah, Elisha, Absalom, Amos, Arthur, Joshua, Addison, Elizabeth, Elsa and Joseph Headlee.

SUSAN HEADLEE was born in 1799. She is mentioned in the History of Pottawattamie County, Iowa. I know nothing more on her.

JOSHUA J. HEADLEE was born in about 1803 in Burke County, North Carolina. After moving to Greene County, Pennsylvania, he married Dorothy John. They moved to Rush County, Indiana in 1841 and to Lee County, Iowa in 1852. In 1861, Dorothy wrote her father that "Joshua has married his second wife and moved back to Indiana." We assume he divorced Dorothy and split, but no one is certain. It may have been some other Joshua, maybe a brother? Dorothy lists herself as a widow in the 1880 census of Pott County, Iowa. The children were:

George, Joseph, James, Jackson, William, Sarah, Nancy Ann and Dorothy.

THOMAS HEADLEE was born August 17, 1806 in Greene County. He married there on December 19, 1824 to Eliza Jane Carney, born 1808. They moved to Shelby County, Indiana and then to Walker Township, Rush County, Indiana. He died there on January 21, 1876. Their children were:

SARAH HEADLEE was born in Greene County in about 1814 and died in 1883. She married William John and they moved from Shelby County, Indiana to Taylor County in Iowa in 1868. Children were:

Christopher, Thomas, Lucy, Louise, George, Martin, Amos, Sarah, Mary, Margaret and Martha John.

Thomas Headlee

Thomas Headlee was born in New Jersey about 1775. After his father died, he and most of his family moved south to Burke County, North Carolina. In 1800 he is shown there with his mother, Jerusha, living with him. In 1806, he and again most of his family, moved north west to Greene County, Pennsylvania. He married and his wife was Sarah, but we do not know her maiden name.

Thomas was married about 1806 or 1807 so it was probably in Pennsylvania.

In the mid 1820s, Thomas left Pennsylvania and traveled a few miles south to Monongalia County in what is now West Virginia, but was Virginia at the time. He sold his land in Pennsylvania in 1826 and the deed stated he was living in Virginia at the time. He remained there until his death in the late 1830s. Sarah died about the same time.

The children all remained in Monongalia and Wetzel counties of West Virginia along the borders of Pennsylvania and Ohio.

ELIZABETH HEADLEE was born in 1807 in Pennsylvania and married Samuel Baldwin in Monongalia County.

Anthony, Eliza, James, Thomas, Caleb, Robert, Mary, Elias, David and Silas Headlee.

NANCY HEADLEE was born about 1822. I know nothing about her.

JOHN HEADLEE JR.

John was born about 1753 or 1754 in Hunterdon County, New Jersey. He married Elizabeth Allison about 1780 after the Revolution. It is felt he served in the War, but records have not turned up. Shortly after marrying, he moved to Burke County in North Carolina and was listed there in 1790 with his wife, 2 sons and 2 daughters.

The family remained in North Carolina until 1806 when they moved to Whiteley Township, Greene County, Pennsylvania. He died there in 1825 and his wife about the same time. He owned land that ran across the border to Virginia as the Mason Dixon Line ran through the farm. He may have settled first on the Virginia side because his grad daughter, Minerva, my relative, stated in 1880 that both her parents were born in Virginia. Her father was Jacob who was born about 1800 or a little later. She also may just have been confused.

Shortly after John's death in 1825, his three sons, Ephraim, John and Jacob all moved to Monroe County, Ohio. It was here that Jacob's daughter, Minerva, married Dr. John Kirk Sharon and the Headlee heritage became a part of my Sharon family lineage.

John Headlee and Elizabeth Allison had seven children.

Lydia Headlee

Lydia was born in New Jersey November 10 1782. She married her cousin, John Headlee. John was a son of Ephraim Headlee and Mary Fordyce Headlee. He was born in Morris County, New Jersey on March 11, 1784. They were probably married in Greene County, Pennsylvania and remained there all their lives living on the north end of Stingwell and members of the family live on that land today. This family were always farmers and stockmen.

John died on April 5, 1866 and Lydia died on April 9, 1858. Both are buried on the family farm.

They had six children.

John Headlee III

John Headlee was born in Burke County, North Carolina in 1788. He moved with his family to Greene County, Pennsylvania in about 1806. There he met and married Sarah Long about 1812. Sarah was born in Virginia in 1793 and was a daughter of Eliel Long.

In the early 1820s, John moved to Jackson Township in Monroe County, Ohio. His brothers, Ephraim and Jacob moved to Ohio about the same time, but settled in different parts of the County. He remained there for about ten years and then moved to Bureau County, Illinois in 1843 and finally to Keokuk County, Iowa in about 1855.

Sarah died in Iowa in 1873. I do not know where or when John 3rd died, but it was before 1850 as Sarah was shown living with her kids by that date.

Their children were:

Jacob Headlee

Jacob Headlee is our line and his life is covered next.

Sarah Headlee

Sarah was born in about 1804, the time the family moved to Pennsylvania. She is a question. There was a Sarah Headlee, born 1804, who married Henry Johnson and lived in Wayne Township of Greene County, Pennsylvania. This is probably this Sarah.

When her father's estate was settled in 1831, she signed as Sarah Headlee, indicating she was not married at that time. She appears on the 1870 Census as Sarah Johnson living with her son Henry and Lucinda Headlee.

JACOB HEADLEE

Jacob Headlee is my line, his daughter, Minerva Flora Headlee, married Dr. John Kirk Sharon.

In the 1880 Illinois Census, Minerva stated that both her parents were born in Virginia. Jacob was born in 1800 and I would assume in Burke County, North Carolina. This is a little confusing, I pray to God I have the right Jacob Headlee as Minerva's daddy.

Anyway, as a young five year old, Jacob moved with his family to Greene County, Pennsylvania. In Greene County, He married a woman named Cynthia in 1823. I think her full name was Cynthia Hall, daughter of Joseph Hall and Christiana Peel who were married In North Carolina and had ten children.

I guess at the connection as William Hall, son of Joseph and Christiana, on April 20, 1841 made an agreement in Monroe County, Ohio with Jacob and Cynthia to

'bind his daughter Emily Jane Hall, aged 14 years, 9 months and 16 days, as an apprentice to the art and mystery of housekeeping to said Jacob and Cynthia.'

Jacob moved to Monroe County, Ohio in the summer of 1827. He was County Auditor in 1832 and again from 1835 to 1843. He settled first near Perry Township and then near Woodsfield, Ohio.

Jacob moved out of the area in the late 1840s and I am still trying to track him down.

Jacob and Cynthia had two children.

Minerva Flora Headlee

Minerva was born in Perry Township of Greene County, Pennsylvania on January 25, 1824. She was three years old when her parents sold their farm and moved to Monroe County with two of her father's brothers.

She married Dr. John Kirk Sharon in Woodsfield, Ohio in October of 1841 and shortly afterwards, they moved to Carrollton, Greene County, Illinois. She remained there until her death on February 12, 1899. This is my line. The life of John K. Sharon and Minerva Headlee Sharon have been told in the main body of this Sharon Family History.

Joseph Headlee

Jacob and Cynthia's son was born in 1826 according to 1840 Census records. I am not certain of the name, but in 1850, a Joseph Headley, age 23, was living with his sister and brother in law, John and Minerva Sharon, in Carrollton, Illinois. He was born in Ohio and was working as a mechanic.
