Tours

Howe's Home Garden: 1124 Old Stage Road, Centerville

Tour benefiting Whelden Memorial Library

This lovely landscape holds numerous flower gardens with various perennials and bulbs. Their specialty is hybridizing day lilies. You will see plants that were cross-pollinated in 2017, yearlings planted in the spring of 2019 and blooming for the first time, and well over 100 plants saved from crops that date to 2004. The best hybrids get a Cape Cod name (Ex. Cape Cod Lemonade) and are registered with the American Hemerocallis Society. If you are curious about hybridization, or simply would like to enjoy an array of beautiful blooms, this is the garden to see. Orders taken for August pick-up.

Open for Tours: Saturday, July 11th, Wednesday, July 15th, and Sunday July 19th 2020 ~ 9:00 AM-12 Noon

Meetinghouse Farm: 2135 Meetinghouse Way (Rt. 149), West Barnstable

Tour benefiting Whelden Memorial Library

Meetinghouse Farm is a 23-acre Town of Barnstable property that is open to the public from dawn to dusk. The property includes wooded areas, open fields and cultivated gardens. Visitors enjoy walking the Farm's short loop trail and exploring over 30 community garden plots. The Farm offers lectures and workshops on horticulture and related topics, rents individual garden plots and greenhouse benches, maintains a seasonal farm stand, encourages use by community and gardening organizations and offers field trip and community service opportunities to local students.
