Dues and Termination Policy

All martial arts memberships are month to month with automatic renewal. Privileges may be suspended if your dues are in arrears. All members are required to fill out a termination form personally at the club and have it signed by a manager or mailed to the accounting office by certified mail when terminating their membership with DHAC Martial Arts. This notice of termination must be received 30 days prior to the effective date of membership termination, or your monthly charges will continue. DHAC will notify all members of any changes in club policy by posting such changes 45 days in advance.
