May 6, 2025

Town and local updates:

At the April 9th Zoning Board of Appeals meeting, the applicant for the Auto Body Shop in West Barnstable withdrew the application for a special permit without prejudice. We're aware that this request may be back at ZBA at a future date. Nancy Trafton and Sam Gray thank the WBCA board for their support.

At the WB Fire District meeting last Wednesday, Dan Dewey was voted as a new Prudential Committee member and Wayne Miller was voted in as Water Commissioner with terms starting July 1, 2025.

Update on the Old Village Store: Progress is being made with its restoration with no opening date yet. Electrical and plumbing are almost completed. They will be closing the walls soon as Cyrus gets approval for that rough work.

FINALLY, the appropriation of CPC and other funds are on the Town Council agenda for a vote on June 5th. Thank you for your support.

There are two vacancies at the Old King's Highway Historic District. Interested parties may apply to the Appointments Committee if interested in serving on this regulatory commission.

There is a meeting of the Water Commissioners next Monday, May 12th at 7pm to discuss the future of municipal water in West Barnstable. All are welcome to attend.

The Town's Open Space Committee is sponsoring a Spring Walking Weekend, Friday, May 16 – Sunday, May 18th. See Town's website.

MHF has its Annual Plant Sale on Saturday, May 17th from 9am - noon.

Proud to serve as your councilor, Kris
